West Jasper Group Holds School Grant Conference

Delegation of West Jasper Place citizens met Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, today to discuss possible effect on school grants if the area is incorporated as a village.

Representatives of the rapidly growing hamlet on the outskirts of Edmonton met Hon. Casey today to discuss the effect on school grants if the area is incorporated as a village and later as a town.

But school board authorities say the area will lose between $20,000 and $25,000 in school grants if village status is gained.

At present, schools in the district receive education grants from the government at rural school rates.

Members of the delegation who met Mr. Casey today to discuss the problem included G. H. Blanning, chairman of West Jasper Place school board; A. E. Shier, school board member; R. D. Butler, president of the Ratepayers' Association; Klaus Robertson, vice-president.

J. C. Mackie, school board member; Eleanor Telford, Ratepayers' Association member and J. M. Stone.

Gideon Group Plans Schoolroom Campaign

New Testament in possession of every Canadian is the major objective of Gideon International in Canada, according to A. J. Burnham, Toronto, general secretary of the organization.

He is in Edmonton to confer with the organization's 35 members in the city, and will discuss plans for distribution of testaments in city schools at meeting to be held next Sunday.

Venue of the meeting will be determined later.

General field secretary for Western Canada, R. H. Colledge, of White Rock, B.C. is also attending the conference.

Operating on a $100.00 budget in Canada the organization distributes more than 100,000 testaments annually to grade five pupils in all Canadian schools.

Through the annual distribution the organization hopes to place testaments in every Canadian home.

Placing of bibles in hotel rooms and institutions is also a major work with the organization, Mr. Burnham stated.

Dept. Heads Fete Mayor

A combustion radio was presented to Mayor and Mrs. Harry D. Ainlay today by civic department heads as the mayor prepared to hand over his reins of office to tomorrow's election chief.

City development committee A. W. Haddon, in making the presentation, said department heads "regret the mayor's term expiring."

"Civic government has functioned smoothly, efficiently, and harmoniously, with loyalty among all its members," he said. "A great deal of credit for the administration is due to your guiding hand."

Mayor Ainlay said his decision to leave was a difficult one, "especially when so many projects are under way. The last two years have been particularly unsmooth—equal to six or seven years' administration, both for you and for me."

There exists now the best co-operation between civic department heads since he became a member of council in 1931, said Mayor Ainlay, as he thanked the gathering for its expression both to himself and to Mrs. Ainlay.

New Czech Laws Hit By Vatican

Catholic Radio Charges Church Put Outside Law

By Norman Monte
United Press Correspondent
VATICAN CITY, Nov. 1.—(UP)—The Catholic Church has demanded revision of the new Czech Communist church control laws on grounds they are "unconstitutional," the Vatican radio reported in a Czech language broadcast today.

The laws, which give the Prague government control of the church affairs and the clergy, went into effect today.

The Vatican radio disclosed that the Council of Bishops in Prague had addressed to the Czech government a document charging that the laws attacked the religious freedom of the Czechoslovak people as guaranteed by the new constitution.

OUTSIDE THE LAW
The broadcast quoted the document that the laws put the Catholic church "beyond the pale of the law" and left it without "any guarantees of collective norms."

It also quoted the document that the laws attacked the "international constitution of Catholic church affairs" and constituted political interference in the internal affairs of the church.

"We demand from the government a strong legal status for the church," the broadcast quoted the document. "We demand that the government guarantee the autonomy of the organization of church interior affairs."

The Catholic bishops and ordinaries (leading church officials) in dioceses without bishops of Czechoslovakia demand that the government remove the present church state difficulties and reach an agreement with the Catholic church especially through the revision of the recently-approved church laws and orders deriving from them.

HIGHEST COURT
The bill would make the Supreme Court Canada's highest court of appeal, and the "stare decisis" principle, if applied strictly, would mean that the Supreme Court would be bound by previous decisions of the Privy Council.

Senator Arthur Roebuck (Ontario) and Senator J. J. Kinley (Iowa) spoke in debate on second reading of the bill. The bill already has passed the Commons.

White holding different views, both suggested some modification of the principle of "stare decisis," the rule by which courts are bound to follow previous court decisions.

Mr. Sedgewick said of the bill, "I know of four applications from Toronto. I have made three appearances before the board in connection with one from CPRB."

Mr. Duntz, in an interview at Victoria, B.C., said television in Canada is wide open for private broadcasters but so far only one private operator, whose name was not disclosed, has applied for permission to build a TV transmitter.

Mr. Sedgewick said today: "There have been applications from Montreal, Hamilton, and Windsor, as well as Toronto."

Both Senators supported the bill and urged passage without delay.

The newspaper said the Czech clergy had been permitted to take a qualified oath of loyalty to the Communist regime so that the church would not be accused of "secession and rebellion."

It said the release of 127 Catholic priests who were arrested because of opposition to the law was "nothing but a Communist measure to delude the public."

ALL BUT 2 SIGN
The Vatican broadcast said the document was signed by all Catholic bishops except Bishops Beran, Archbishop of Prague, and J. J. Kinley, Bishop of Prague.

Archbishop Beran has been under house arrest in Prague and J. J. Kinley is in the United States.

The document, issued in Prague Oct. 20 and 21, was made public for the first time as the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano declared the church had not abandoned its battle against the Czech government.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Two Liberal Senators speaking last night in support of a government bill to abolish appeals to the judicial committee of the privy council, urged that the Supreme Court of Canada should not be too firmly bound by previous Privy Council decisions.

CBC's Chief Said Unfair

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—(CP)—A Toronto radio station manager yesterday termed "completely unfair and ridiculous" a statement attributed to A. D. Duntz, chairman of the CBC's Board of Governors, that "so far no one has shown much interest in television in Canada today."

Harry Sedgewick of CFRB said, "I know of four applications from Toronto. I have made three appearances before the board in connection with one from CPRB."

Mr. Duntz, in an interview at Victoria, B.C., said television in Canada is wide open for private broadcasters but so far only one private operator, whose name was not disclosed, has applied for permission to build a TV transmitter.

Mr. Sedgewick said today: "There have been applications from Montreal, Hamilton, and Windsor, as well as Toronto."

Separation of Church From State Necessary

Lutheran church doctrine recognizes that separation of church and state is necessary and is most advantageous to promoting true democracy.

This was the message brought to more than 1,000 Edmonton Lutherans attending the National Lutheran Council Reformation rally Sunday, at First Presbyterian church.

The speaker was Dr. S. C. East, veld, Parkland, Wash., president of the Pacific Lutheran college.

Criticism that the Lutheran faith is inadequate has come chiefly from non-democratic sources, Dr. East said. "The Nazis the Communists, the men responsible for wars and depressions, the men who fill other men with hatred and immorality, and the common criminals" are the critics, he said.

Rev. T. W. Markstedt, pastor of Central Lutheran church, was chairman of the rally and Rev. F. S. Oswald, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, was liturgist.

Mixed choral of singers, under the direction of Edward Giltz, participated in the service.

Dr. East said he addressed a seminar in Trinity Lutheran church Sunday evening. Dr. E. B. Glabe, Minneapolis, was another guest speaker at the same meeting.

Bootleg Lobsters Seized In Chase

BUCHOUQUE, N.B., Nov. 1.—(CP)—A thrilling chase ended with the seizure yesterday of a truck and 1,200 pounds of bootleg lobsters. Occupants of the truck escaped before arrival of RCMP. It was estimated some 15 miles were covered during the chase.

Both Senators supported the bill and urged passage without delay.

ON SPORT

Who's Got Change for a Quarter?

Fifty thousand dollars is an honest-to-gosh chunk of money, whether to a girl who spends his mornings on the local skidrow or in James Richardson's, slipping his coupons.

And $50,000, the figure arrived at conservatively, is the sum those ACT curiers are likely to toss off around the city this week.

Of the close to 400 shotmakers who have declared for a shot at winning the automobiles, upwards of seventy-five per cent are from out of the city. With few exceptions they will shack up hotel-style, and pack away their meals across a restaurant counter.

After hours the boys from Avonlea, Trail, Aspen Beach, La Glace, Winnipeg, Assin and Anaheim will be going out on the town. And even in Edmonton, a city hardly famed for the quality or quantity of its night spots, fun runs to money.

Throw in costs of taxis, bottled products, an odd fudge or two and a postage stamp (not one of them but MEANS to write home) and you have it: $50,000, give or take a banknote.

Four-to-a-Room Style

In other words there's more to this curling invasion than meets the eye.

Even for the fortunate four who eventually win an automobile apiece, it won't be clear profit. They'll have to write off a sizeable sum against their winnings.

One of the curlers on the city has served to further emphasize the woolly lack of hotel accommodation. The word around headquarters last night was that the visitors are doing everything but swing from chandeliers, so desperate are they about not having a room.

The Al Derrett quartet from Winnipeg, all big men by the way, had to settle for one room. They sleep (?) two to a single bed. Others have wound up in simple rooms or even in linen closets. To this point no one has been reported as sleeping on the fire escape.

But then the 'spiel is only just underway. Give the boys time.

Incidentally press and radio representatives are finding the going easy at headquarters in the Macdonald. Draw sheets and other releases pertinent to the progress of the 'hatch on' readily available.

Very Little 'Paper' in the House

Promoters, if that's the correct term to apply to Ted Mairs, George Sorenson, "Squib" Williamson and others who are giving so generously of their time in an attempt to put the 'spiel over, run into some unexpected headaches.

For instance, one Mairs and associates have got off the $12,000 but which they were saddled on the go in, all proceeds go to the ACT's Northern Alberta Crippled Children's fund.

Certainly you wouldn't look for a moocher within a radar distance of such an attraction. Nevertheless it's been a grim struggle to keep the pass-list under control, what with this one and that trying to muscle in on the cheap. "We've been tough about it," Sorenson observed just about the time the 8.00 curl results were coming in last night. "How can we make any money for the fund if we aren't?"

Incidentally Edmonton's first curling draw well on opening day. Patronage was steady from morn 'til night. There's reason to believe it will be a real financial hit.

Besides, there's that $50,000.

'General' Grant Predicts Tough Football Playoff

REGINA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—"If this bunch gets back and plays together next year as a unit, we won't be beaten." This is the confident prediction of coach Fred (General) Grant of the Saskatchewan Roughriders, preparing to meet the league-leading Calgary Stampeders in the Western Interprovincial Football union playoffs.

Grant admits that his Riders had their troubles early in the season. "If you lose, there is bound to be some irritation. On paper, the club is as good as any. When you lose, you look for the weak link."

NO DIFFICULTIES

The coach, who hails from Chislehurst, Va., and is rounding out his third season with the Riders, feels that all difficulties have been ironed out. "We're sure the main rest to look for is the team's ability to play as a unit."

"They never would admit the other guy was as good as the guy they played with before," said Grant in an interview. "They were sure the main rest to look for was the team's ability to play as a unit."

Government Asked Aid Games Athlete

A delegation from the Alberta branch of the Amateur Athletic Union will meet with Premier E. C. Manning this week to seek financial aid for George Sutherland, hammer-throw specialist on the Canadian British Empire Games team.

Announcement was made last night following a Montreal report that Sutherland's addition to the Canadian team had been confirmed.

Sutherland, of De Winton, Alta., said he was happy over confirmation of his selection. He believes that it will make him the first man to participate in four British Empire Games.

A. R. Lawrence of Edmonton, chairman of the track and field committee of the Alberta branch, said he hoped that the Alberta government will share Sutherland's expenses to New Zealand.

Although the De Winton athlete was beaten in the Toronto track and field trials by Unionville's Steve Sweeney, the Alberta athlete had won the Manitoba in two previous meetings this year.

At the trials, Sutherland outdistanced Sutherland 147 to 145 1/2 yards in the 160-yard hammer throw. But in the other meetings, Sutherland tossed the hammer for 147 yards in the first and 146 yards to Sutherland's 129 and 147.

Mr. Lawrence said he thought it unlikely that the Alberta branch would approach the provincial government to share the expenses of another member of the Canadian team, sprinter Don Pettie of Calgary.

"We feel that Pettie's expenses should be the obligation of the British Empire Games Association of Canada," he said.

Wagner, who has scored 65 points in 11 games, tied for the lead in the scoring race with the Toronto Argonauts.

Statistics compiled by the Canadian Press show that the hard-driving half has rolled up 66 points on 13 touchdowns and one convert in 11 big four-point games. He tallied 10 points at the weekend to pull out ahead of teammate Ches McCrory.

McCrory, Alouette's flying wing and a leading scorer, is a second-year player with the Toronto Argonauts. He has scored 50 points in 11 games.

Home Payment Cut In New Federal Bill

Government Still Unable To Say If Rent Control To Be Extended

By D'Arcy O'Donnell

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Reconstruction Minister Winters yesterday placed the government's new housing program before the Commons.

However, he said he was unable to state whether domestic rent controls will be extended beyond March 31, 1950.

Donald Fleming (PC-Toronto), the official opposition's housing critic, said the program could not be discussed properly unless members knew government policy on controls. If the controls were to be handed to the province, the provincial government should be given plenty of warning.

The housing legislation was advanced through preliminary stages. Mr. Winters said the legislation is aimed at reducing down payments on new homes and at opening the way for Federal-provincial-Municipal co-operation in the housing field.

REDUCING DOWN PAYMENTS

The government plans to amend the National Housing Act to reduce approximately by half, the down-payment required of prospective home owners.

Under existing legislation, the professional builder of homes, is able to borrow up to $8,000 on the houses. Under the new legislation, the builders still will be able to borrow a maximum of $8,000 on a new home. However, the buyer can obtain one-sixth of the amount loaned to the builder, using the maximum figure that would amount to approximately $1,400.

On a $8,000 house, for instance, the down payment would be as low as $1,300, about half the amount required under present N.H.A. provisions.

The loans, repayable over 20, 25 or 30 years, periods, bear interest of 4 1/2 per cent.

The government's program envisages a Dominion-provincial partnership on a 75-25 per cent financial basis to undertake a potential $200-million program of loanable construction of low-cost houses for sale and construction of both low and subsidized rental units.

"NOT ENOUGH" Mr. Fleming said Mr. Winters' sober statement did not promise a "new heaven and a new earth" as had government supporters during the general election.

The government's legislation would have to be more far-reaching than anything in Mr. Winters' statement to fill even a fraction of the election promises.

Angus MacInnis (CCF, Vancouver East) regretted the government planned to leave mainly to private enterprise the job of providing new homes. Private enterprise would not or perhaps could not provide homes that the average worker could buy.

C. E. Johnston (SC, Bow River) suggested a royal commission on housing. While the government's legislation was a step in the right direction, it did not go far enough. He urged, for instance, greater protection of the owner's equity in a house and closer inspection of houses under construction.

Corduroy, Velvet Are Firsts for Fashion

By Bea Thrifty

Velvet and corduroy have been the big news in fabrics since the first leaf fell this fall.

From head to toe, midday is in style if she's in velvet, velvet or corduroy.

I've been mulling for quite some time about the velvet hats, which are the cutest things in the world for short young heads.

Stocks became easily depleted before I had a chance to buy one and buy one for myself, so I was greatly elated today to find that a vast new shipment has arrived.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Husband Told Give Wife Second Chance

DEAR MISS DIX—I have discovered that my wife has been unfaithful to me for several years. She has told me that she did not know why she did this, asked me to forgive her and said that I could always trust her in the future.

For the sake of our son, now about 11 years old, and our parents I am trying to think this thing out carefully. I am sure that my love for her which has stood so much for years, for she has been cold and unsympathetic with me, has finally died.

She has seen this and has become panicky in her piece of "why cannot I care for her again as I used to? I feel awfully sorry for her, but it seems to me that a separation is the only solution. She has been a good wife and mother except for this.

ANSWER: Many women forgive their husbands for being unfaithful to them. They extend the same mercy to a wife for straying off the trail and narrow path.

A man is a lonely creature without a wife. He is a lonely creature without a home.

HARD TO FORGIVE

Of course, infidelity is a hard thing for one to forgive in one's mate. It is a particularly hard thing for a man to forgive in his wife, because when a man marries he puts his name and his honor in his wife's hands and he expects her to keep them clean.

But often forgiveness is better than revenge and brings a man more happiness in the end.

Often a woman is swept from her moorings by some sudden storm of passion just as a man is, and when it is over she comes back to her husband, battered and bruised, and spends the balance of her life licking his hand in gratitude if he does not shut the door in her face.

Sometimes she, too, lingers for moments that her husband fails to give her and when she has eaten of forbidden fruit and found it dead and sallow in her teeth, she ever afterward eats the plain bread.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Need Discussed For Good Sex Education

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Despite the persistent emphasis by all authorities on the need for sound, wholesome, honest sex education, too many parents still shy away from it.

The possibility is that they get their own information about sex from children like themselves, and still harbor these distorted, erroneous ideas about it. They become tongue-tied when asked to translate sex to their innocent children. It still retains too much of the sacredness and the hush about it. They cannot erase these early attitudes and bring them into the open in a different way.

Many a parent is honestly convinced that her child is uninterested in the subject. "Marjorie never asks me a question," she protests. "I don't see why I should bring up the subject."

If Marjorie is 7 or 8 or 9 and has never asked a question about babies it is because she has been enlightened by her playmates and cautioned not to tell her mother. It is inevitable that any normal, intelligent child will be curious about how babies come into the world and where they were before they were here. Quite often, these silent, unasking children are fondle-ers of knowledge with their playmates.

Again, parents are earnest and modern in their children's education, so-called "facts of life" but forget that sex has a dozen facets and facets of knowledge with their playmates.

There is much information to be given when a baby is cared for, bathed, dressed, and when he or she is old enough to play and he or she learns that differs from those of the opposite sex.

In fact, sex education is a day by day "interpretation" of everything which pertains to the two sexes in the world and may be far from merely an explanation of their courtship, marriage and parenthood. Good sex education ought to be incorporated into all the child's daily activities and give a well rounded picture of life instead of a stilted one which takes into account only the relationship with results in a baby. That is sex education and it does take place whether the parents manage it or someone else.

Why Grow Old

There is a new cosmetic on the market which is so exciting and which fills such a long felt need that I feel I must report it to you today, in case you have not already heard about it!

This product promotes the idea of making up your hair just as you make up your face. For years I have been getting letters from women who say that money grab hair ruins their appearance; that they want to let their hair turn grey but hate the idea of it. I simply cannot afford the time or the money to go to a beauty parlor as often as necessary to keep dyed hair good looking.

For some time now I have been saying that rinses are very helpful and attractive. They blend, and even partly cover grey streaks and wash out with the next shampoo. Often dyeing can be delayed for years and years.

None a well known cosmetician has presented her color-tint rinses, to be used at home. These rinses are four times as concentrated as most but last only from shampoo to shampoo and can be shampooed out completely. They come in little capsules and you dissolve one in your last rinse water.

There is a wide color range. Most women fall into one of five color types—black, brunette, medium-brown, redhead and grey. Once you select your tint type, your individual package contains four rinses for you to experiment with.

A particularly interesting feature of the new hair makeup is the rinse for grey hair which covers up the yellow cast or yellow streaks without dulling.

If you would like to have my leaflet on hair care send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 52 "Stars in Your Crown" to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

There is a new cosmetic on the market which is so exciting and which fills such a long felt need that I feel I must report it to you today, in case you have not already heard about it!

This product promotes the idea of making up your hair just as you make up your face. For years I have been getting letters from women who say that money grab hair ruins their appearance; that they want to let their hair turn grey but hate the idea of it. I simply cannot afford the time or the money to go to a beauty parlor as often as necessary to keep dyed hair good looking.

For some time now I have been saying that rinses are very helpful and attractive. They blend, and even partly cover grey streaks and wash out with the next shampoo. Often dyeing can be delayed for years and years.

None a well known cosmetician has presented her color-tint rinses, to be used at home. These rinses are four times as concentrated as most but last only from shampoo to shampoo and can be shampooed out completely. They come in little capsules and you dissolve one in your last rinse water.

There is a wide color range. Most women fall into one of five color types—black, brunette, medium-brown, redhead and grey. Once you select your tint type, your individual package contains four rinses for you to experiment with.

A particularly interesting feature of the new hair makeup is the rinse for grey hair which covers up the yellow cast or yellow streaks without dulling.

If you would like to have my leaflet on hair care send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 52 "Stars in Your Crown" to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Truman Approves Farm Price Bill

Agriculture Secretary May Support 90 Per Cent Parity

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—President Truman yesterday signed long-range farm legislation which the United States government to support prices of most farm products at or near wartime levels.

The measure, passed by the present Democratic Congress, replaces most major provisions of the so-called Aiken law enacted by the Republican 80th Congress. The Aiken Law permitted somewhat lower supports for major crops.

The new law gives the Secretary of Agriculture authority to support virtually every farm product at 90 per cent of parity if he thinks that is advisable.

Truman and Agriculture Secretary Brannan have indicated they favor 90-per-cent supports as a general rule, to keep agriculture prosperous.

Parity is a legal standard designed to give farmers a fair return for their products in relation to the things they must buy.

There was no statement from Truman in connection with the signing.

PRICE LIMITS SET
Except for the first year—1950—the department also has discretionary authority to drop farm-price guarantees below 90 per cent of parity, but only within limits fixed by legislation.

The government supports prices by buying in the open market at support prices, or by making loans to the producer with its produce as security.

Parity is a legal standard designed to give farmers a fair return for their products in relation to the things they must buy.

THEY FOUND THE CORPUS DELECTABLE

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1.—(CP)—Blood was dripping through the ceiling of the hotel parlor, the excited hotel clerk told police.

"Shut grapes," the cops said after a fruitless search for the body.

And sour grapes it was. The occupant of the room above had sealed a container of grapes and forgotten them for a month. The jar exploded and the vermillion contents soaked through.

Mr. Justice McDonald said the stay of execution would be granted when he ruled in Mr. McGilvray's application.

Workers Ask Compensation Be Complete

REGINA, Nov. 1.—(CP)—The question of 100-per-cent compensation for workers injured on the job came before the committee reviewing the Saskatchewan Workers' Compensation Act today.

W. Cooke of Regina Trades and Labor Council presented a brief addressed by committee in Saskatoon. Moose Jaw and Prince Albert called for fuller and wider coverage.

"We fail to see why, when a worker suffers a loss of 100 cents he should receive 75 cents and call it square," said the brief. Mr. Cooke asked compensation for any illness traced to a worker's employment.

Music Lessons Drive Husband To Murder Two
